Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Peggy R. Milford began her U S WEST Communications career in 1967 as a staff trainee in Minneapolis, Minnesota; and,

WHEREAS, Peggy held a number of management positions in the Minnesota Operations, moved to Omaha, Nebraska, to become director of strategic financial and market planning in 1984, and was elected vice president and chief executive officer for U S WEST Communications in South Dakota in November 1986; and,

WHEREAS, Peggy has been active in community organizations wherever her career has taken her--serving on the board of directors for the U S WEST Foundation, South Dakota State University Foundation, South Dakota Community Foundation, Sioux Falls United Way, and the Industry and Commerce Association of South Dakota, just to name a few; and,

WHEREAS, Peggy Milford is leaving South Dakota and moving to Denver, Colorado, and it is fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota make special recognition of this outstanding person:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 4, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join Peggy's friends and co-workers in wishing her continued health and happiness in her new job and home, and we bid her a fond farewell.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
